Saturday, May 4

Morning Skalks – hosted by Sir Dave (who better qualified than he?)
Whisky Hill cholesterol special
Eggs scrambled with wild leeks, venison steaks, home fries, toast, and coffee
Morning event: target practice at the Whisky Hill shooting range. *
Easy on the skalks if you wish to participate!
Long range FoaFing to Premier in Buffalo, LCBO in Canada and the Duty Free (optional)
Midday snacks and drams
Afternoon entertainment
Pitching horseshoes*
VCR tapes (malt porn, whatever)
And of course, drams with the above!
Whisky Hill cholesterol special – evening edition
Hickory smoked ribs & wings, various salads. Pizza too if anyone is sober enough to drive into town and pick it up!
Evening Head to Head – Longrow comparison. I currently have 6 bottlings of Longrow to sample:
1989 OB's bourbon and sherry – both 46%
1987 Signatory 8 YO 43%
1987 Signatory 10 YO 43%
1987 Samaroli 13 YO 45 %
1992 Cadenhead's 57.2%
The haggis ceremony – address and consumption
Featured evening drams:
Glenglassaugh 12 YO OB 43%
1975 Talisker 25 YO 59.9%
Freelance dramming. Could be Ardbeg oblivion...

Sunday, May 5

Morning Skalks
Sunday edition cholesterol special
Blueberry pancakes, venison sausage, leftover haggis, juice, coffee
Departure drams – easy does it drivers!

* Outdoor activities weather permitting
